DEAN, CCP

These are times of great pain, but also of great possibility. As dean of Chitkara College of Pharmacy, I would like to express my gratitude to the CCP family for their outstanding achievements from "bench to bedside," which reflect our cooperative alliances. It's very easy, and it's certainly understandable, to feel exhausted and defeated by the challenges among us, but everyone of us are still engaged in research and teaching that contributes directly to finding solutions for our world on fire. I want to congratulate everyone associated with CCP for making this session successful through their commitment and hard work, as well as by their camaraderie and professionalism, which helped to uphold the culture and legacy of CCP and helped the team to achieve NIRF top 20 ranking.

I will always be thankful for the efforts that the faculty and staff of our college have done for Chitkara College of Pharmacy. Also, I am optimistically excited about the future prospects of what we will achieve together in the upcoming years.

PROJECTS

Project Title- “DownDetect- A Breakthrough in Down Syndrome Early Detection”

PHARM D III year students (Sapna Ahuja and Khushi Lamba) under the guidance of faculty members designed a Down syndrome detection kit, designed for early screening of Down syndrome in the first trimester. Utilising a dual testing approach of biomarkers—free beta hCG and unconjugated estriol—this kit provides heightened sensitivity and specificity compared to traditional methods for identifying trisomy 21. By analysing maternal urine samples, this innovative solution eliminates the need for invasive procedures, ensuring safety and comfort for both mother and foetus. Employing colourimetry and fluorimetry principles, our kit delivers rapid and accurate results, empowering expectant parents with vital information about their baby's health. This device presents significant commercial potential with its non-invasive design, user-friendly interface, and enhanced precision. It offers healthcare professionals and parents a reliable early Down syndrome detection tool, potentially improving prenatal care and informed decision-making. Moreover, its dual detection method and incorporation of fluorescence technology make it a promising option for adoption in clinics, hospitals, and prenatal care facilities globally.

INTERNATIONAL VISITS

Dr. Onkar Bedi has been invited to present his groundbreaking research under the oral presentation at the 33rd Annual Meeting of the Asian Pacific Association for the Study of the Liver, known as APASL 2024 Kyoto - The Center of Hepatology. This prestigious event took place from March 27th to 31st in Kyoto, Japan. Dr. Onkar Bedi's invitation to this esteemed conference not only underscores the exceptional quality of research being conducted here but also enhances our global presence in the field of pharmaceutical sciences.

To support this endeavour, Dr. Bedi successfully availed the ITS grant under the Anusandhan National Research Foundation (ANRF) scheme, facilitated by the Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB) in New Delhi. This grant is a testament to the impactful work being carried out at our institution and our commitment to advancing scientific knowledge on a global scale.

Dr. Paranjit Kaur had the privilege of attending the 14th International NanoMedicine Conference, held at Pier One Sydney Harbour, Sydney, Australia, from June 24 to 26, 2024. This esteemed conference was co-directed by the Co-Directors of the Australian Centre for NanoMedicine (ACN) at UNSW Sydney, NSW 2052, Australia.

Representing Chitkara University, Dr. Kaur presented a poster titled "Optimizing Therapeutic Potential: Integrating Medicinal Chemistry and Nanotechnology from Drug Discovery to Nano Carrier Development via Computational Antidiabetic Approach." The conference provided an exceptional platform to share the research and engage with leading experts in the field of nanomedicine.

In addition to the conference, Dr. Kaur had the opportunity to visit the research laboratories of Wollongong University, NSW, Australia, the following week from July 1 to 5, 2023. This visit was instrumental in discussing potential collaborative projects and joint grant applications, which she is confident will significantly benefit Chitkara University.
