

A very warm welcome to Chitkara

On behalf of Faculty & Management, I take this opportunity to welcome you to Chitkara College of Hotel Management & Catering and congratulate you on making a positive choice to become a student in our quality programme and member in our community of learners.

This 3-year B.Sc. degree programme in Hospitality Administration (HA), has been designed and structured in such a manner that upon its successful completion, you will be ready to face the industry in all respects and establish your footing so as to help you to be a responsible individual.

While our endeavor will be to impart the best knowledge and industrial experiences to you, we would also expect you as a student to be an avid and enthusiastic learner. We will require your best efforts and cooperation in an endeavor to impart the best possible training and education throughout your stay with us. It would be equally important that the rules and regulations as laid down by the college are strictly adhered to.

Uniform & Practical Kit. To lend brand exclusivity to each of our students, a dress code will be applied for the students of Chitkara University. The uniform will bracket you in a niche of budding professionals and also engender a sense of individuality and oneness to your identity as Chitkara students. In order to facilitate the students in procuring the uniform at a discounted price, the university has finalized a vendor, who would be present at the campus on the day of orientation. The uniform comprising of 15 items like, Blazer, Chef Coat, Shirts, Trousers and Aprons, etc. and a practical kit comprising of kitchen accessories, etc. would also be required by the students, which shall also be made available at the campus on the day of orientation at a cost of Rs. 8,000/-. Bus facilities are available to commute from Kalka, Chandigarh, Mohali, Kharar, Panchkula, Dera Bassi, Patiala & Ambala at the most affordable rates, ranging from Rs. 15,000/- to Rs. 38,000/- per annum depending upon the destination.

Hostel Facilities. Hostel facilities are also available within the campus. The students, who wish to avail hostel facilities, will be allotted hostel accommodation the same day before the orientation. Hostel fee (inclusive mess and laundry charges) for a semi-furnished four-seater room with bed, mattress, study table, chair & an almirah is Rs. 42,000/- per semester + Rs. 5,000/- caution fee, which is refundable and payable one time at the time of admission,

The programme commences from 17th Aug 2016 at our Rajpura campus, which is located at Jansla (Rajpura) on Chandigarh-Patiala National Highway (NH-62). You are requested to reach at Rajpura Campus, by 9.30 A.M. for the admission formalities, like allotment of hostel, bus facilities and uniform etc. In order to induct you to this programme, an orientation programme will be held next day (18 Aug 2016) in the morning and classes will commence soon thereafter in the afternoon.
